

Leader - Barossa Valley
09-Nov-2011
 Page: 1
 General News
 Market: Angaston SA
 Circulation: 7700
 Type: Regional
 Size: 494.31 sq.cms
 Frequency: --W----

WINNERS: Kym and Steve Brown, from Getaways Reservation Service and Tour Barossa with Sacha Bown and Cathy Gladigau, from Jacob's Creek Visitor Centre and Jacob's Restaurant were dancing in the vineyards yesterday, celebrating a successful haul of trophies at this year's S.A. Tourism Awards.

Seppeltsfield Vineyard Cottage and Getaways Reservation Service in the Barossa have been inducted into the State Tourism Hall of Fame after winning their respective categories for the third year in a row at Friday night's 2011 South Australian Tourism Awards.

Tour Barossa, Jacob's Creek Visitor Centre and Jacob's Restaurant at Jacob's Creek Visitor Centre were also successful in winning their categories on the night.

More than 550 people from the tourism industry attended the black tie event, which saw winners awarded during a gala dinner at the Adelaide Convention Centre.

In addition, another 12 silver or bronze medals were awarded to Barossa tourism operators for their high standard of entries in their respective categories.

Medallists: Tourist Attractions – Silver, Barossa Valley Cheese Company; Bronze, Lyndoch Lavender Farm & Cafe.

Festivals and Events – Silver, Barossa Vintage Festival.

Visitor Information and Services – Silver, Barossa Visitor Centre.

Tour and/or Transport Operators – Bronze, Barossa Daimler Tours.

Tourism Wineries, Distilleries and Boutique Breweries – Silver, TeAro Estate Tasting Room; Silver, Pindarie; Silver, Richmond Grove Cellar Door.

Deluxe Accommodation – Silver, Treasured Memories Accommodation; Bronze, Novotel Barossa Valley Resort.

Excellence in Sustainable Tourism – Bronze, Jacob's Creek Visitor Centre.

Excellence in Tourism by Local Government – Silver, The Barossa Council.