Board Members' Remuneration

- 6.33 Any Board Member who serves on any committee or who devotes special attention to the business to the Association or who otherwise performs services which in the opinion of the Board are outside the scope of the ordinary duties of a Board Member or who at the request of the Board engages in any journey on the business of the Association may be paid such extra remuneration by way of salary or otherwise as the Board determines.

- 6.34 Board Members may in addition to any such remuneration be reimbursed out of the funds of the Association for such reasonable travelling hotel and other expenses as may be incurred by them when engaged on the business of the Association or in attending meetings of the Association or of the Board or of any committee.

Common Seal

- 6.35 The common seal of the Association must be kept by the Secretary. It must not be affixed to any document without the authority and written approval of the Board. The affixing of the common seal must be witnessed by the signatures of two members of the Board, or one member of the Board and the public officer of the Association.

Chief Executive Officer

- 6.36 The Board must appoint a Chief Executive Officer.
- 6.37 The Chief Executive Officer holds office on the terms and conditions (including as to remuneration) and with the powers, duties and authorities, determined by the Board.
- 6.38 The exercise of those powers and authorities and the performance of those duties, by the Chief Executive Officer is subject at all times to the control of the Board.
- 6.39 Subject to the terms and conditions of the appointment, the Board may suspend or remove the Chief Executive Officer from that office.
- 6.40 The Chief Executive Officer is entitled to notice of and to attend all meetings of the Association, the Board and any committees and may speak on any matter, but does not have a vote.

Secretary and Public Officer

- 6.41 There must be at least one Secretary who is to be appointed by the Board.
- 6.42 The Board may suspend or remove a Secretary from that office.
- 6.43 A Secretary holds office on the terms and conditions (including as to remuneration) and with the powers, duties and authorities, determined by the Board.
- 6.44 The Board will appoint a Public Officer as required by the Act.
- 6.45 The Board may suspend or remove a Public Officer from that office.
- 6.46 A Public Officer holds office on the terms and conditions (including as to remuneration) as determined by the Board and with the powers, duties and authorities as determined by the Board and as set out in the Act.
- 6.47 An individual may simultaneously hold the offices of Secretary and Public Officer.

Formation of Committees

- 6.48 The Board may form a committee, comprising persons who do not have to be Members, to deal with issues as determined by the Board.
- 6.49 The Board may delegate tasks to a committee or members of a committee and may delegate or restrict powers as it sees fit.
- 6.50 Membership of a committee does not give any member of the committee to attend or vote at any meeting of the Association or of the Board.
- 6.51 A committee may elect a chairman of its meetings; if no such chairman is elected, or if at any meeting the chairman is not present within ten minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the members present may choose one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.
- 6.52 A committee may meet and adjourn as it thinks proper. Questions arising at any meeting will be determined by a majority of votes of the members present, and in the case of an equality of votes the chairman will have a second or casting vote.

7 MEETINGS

Annual General Meetings

- 7.1 The Board will call an annual general meeting of the Members within five months after the end of its financial year or in accordance with the Act.
- 7.2 The Annual General Meeting will be held at a location and on a date to be determined by the Board to transact the following business: -
- 7.2.1 To receive, and if approved, adopt the Annual Report, audited balance sheet and statement of accounts for the financial year ending 30th June proceeding;
 - 7.2.2 To consider alterations to the Constitution and, if approved, adopt the alterations by Special Resolution.
 - 7.2.3 To deal with any matters the Board or any Member wishes to bring before the meeting.
 - 7.2.4 To announce Board Members for the following year.
 - 7.2.5 To accept the minutes of the previous Annual General Meeting and of any General Meeting held since that meeting.
- 7.3 At least fourteen days notice in writing of the Annual General Meeting must be provided to each Member. The notice convening the Annual General Meeting must state that the meeting is the annual general meeting.
- 7.4 The period of notice under rule 7.3 may be waived with the written consent of all Members.

Special General Meetings of Members

- 7.5 Special General Meetings will be held in accordance with the Act.
- 7.6 The Board may whenever it thinks fit convene a Special General Meeting.

- 7.7 The Board must also convene a Special General Meeting if not less than 5 per cent of the total number of Members request the Board in writing to do so. The request must state the purpose of the meeting and must be signed by the Members making the request. The request may be made in separate documents in substantially the same form, each signed by at least one Member.
- 7.8 Any business transacted at a Special General Meeting other than an Annual General Meeting will be deemed special business.

Notice of General Meetings

- 7.9 Subject to the provisions of the Act and to agreement to accept shorter notice, at least fourteen days' notice of a General Meeting must be given to Members and those persons entitled to receive notice. The notice will state:
- 7.9.1 the place of the General Meeting;
 - 7.9.2 the day and hour of the General Meeting; and
 - 7.9.3 the general nature of any special business to be considered at the General Meeting.
- 7.10 No business may be transacted at a General Meeting of the Association except the business specified in the notice of meeting. A Member who wants an item of business to be transacted at a general meeting may give notice of that business in writing to the Board. The Board must include that business in the next notice of a general meeting.

Quorum

- 7.11 No business will be transacted at any General Meeting unless a quorum of Members is present when the meeting proceeds to business.
- 7.12 Ten Members present in person or by proxy will be a quorum for a General Meeting.
- 7.13 If a quorum is not present at the time for commencement of a meeting, and is still not present half an hour later, the following rules apply:
- 7.13.1 If the meeting was convened at the written request of Members, the meeting is automatically dissolved.
 - 7.13.2 In any other case, the meeting is automatically adjourned to the same time and day in the next week. It is to be held in the same place unless another place is specified by the Chairman at the time of the adjournment or by a written notice given to Members at least 24 hours before the date of the adjourned meeting.
- 7.14 If a quorum is not present at the time for the commencement of an adjourned meeting, and is still not present half an hour later, the quorum becomes 7 Members. If that quorum is not present, the meeting is automatically dissolved.

Proceedings at General Meetings of Members

- 7.15 The Chairman or in their absence the Vice Chairman will be the Chairman at every General Meeting. If there is no Chairman or Vice Chairman or if neither of them is present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting or if neither of them is willing to act as Chairman of the meeting the Members present will choose one of the Board Members to so act if no Board Member by present or willing to do so they will choose one of their number to take the chair.

- 7.16 Minutes of the meeting are to be duly entered in the books provided for the purpose:
- 7.16.1 The names of the persons present at each meeting;
 - 7.16.2 All declarations made or notices given to any Member (either generally or specifically) of their interest in any contract or proposed contract or their holding of any office or property whereby any conflict of duty or interest may arise;
 - 7.16.3 All resolutions and proceedings;
 - 7.16.4 Such minutes will be signed by the Chairman of the meeting at which the proceedings were held or by the Chairman of the next succeeding meeting, or if the minutes are unavailable at the next meeting then at the earliest opportunity afforded by a subsequent meeting.
- 7.17 A minute of any General Meeting or meeting of the Board if certified to be a correct minute by the Chairman of the meeting or of the next succeeding meeting will be sufficient evidence of the proceedings and observance of all necessary formalities

Voting at General Meetings

- 7.18 A question that is to be decided at a General Meeting of the Association is to be decided on a show of hands. Unless a poll is demanded in accordance with the next clause, a declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has been carried, carried unanimously, carried by a particular majority, or lost, plus an entry to that effect in the Minute Book of the Association, is evidence of the fact, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of and against the resolution.
- 7.19 If at least 3 Members entitled to vote at a meeting demand a poll on a question that is to be decided at the meeting, the Chairman must comply with that demand.
- 7.20 If a poll is demanded it will be taken in such manner and at such time and place as the Chairman of the meeting directs, It may be taken at once after an interval or adjournment or otherwise as the Chairman of the meeting directs.
- 7.21 A poll demanded on the election of the Chairman of the meeting or on a question of adjournment will be taken immediately. The demand for a poll will not prevent the continuation of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question of which the poll has been demanded.
- 7.22 The Chairman of the meeting may with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present and will if so directed by the meeting adjourn the meeting but no business will be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at meeting from which the adjournment took place.
- 7.23 If a meeting is adjourned for more than 30 days then notice of the adjourned meeting will be given as if it were the original meeting but otherwise it will not be necessary to give any notice relating to an adjourned meeting.

Proxies

- 7.24 A Member will be entitled to appoint in writing a natural person who is also a Member of the Association to be their proxy, and attend and vote at any General Meeting of the Association.

MINUTES OF MEETINGS

- 7.25 Proper minutes of all proceedings of meetings of the Board and meetings of the Members will be entered within one month after the relevant meeting in records kept for the purpose.
- 7.26 The minutes kept pursuant to this rule will be signed by the Chairman of the meeting at which the proceedings took place or by the Chairman of the next succeeding meeting.

8 DISPUTE RESOLUTION

- 8.1 The dispute resolution procedure set out in this Constitution applies to disputes under these rules between:
- 8.1.1 a Member and another Member
 - 8.1.2 a Member and the Association
- 8.2 If a dispute arises, the parties must act in good faith towards one another in relation to it.
- 8.3 The parties to a dispute must meet to discuss it as soon as they have all become aware of it. They must attempt to resolve it within 14 days. If they do not resolve it within that time, the parties must hold a meeting with a mediator chosen by them. If the parties do not agree on a mediator:
- 8.3.1 in the case of a dispute between a Member and another Member, the mediator is the Board of the Association;
 - 8.3.2 in the case of a dispute involving the Association, the mediator is to be a person appointed by the President of the Law Society of South Australia;
 - 8.3.3 a party to a dispute must not be the mediator; or
 - 8.3.4 a Member of the Association may be appointed as mediator.
- 8.4 The mediator must observe the following rules:
- 8.4.1 the parties must be given an adequate opportunity to be heard;
 - 8.4.2 the parties must be given an adequate opportunity to consider any written submission by a party;
 - 8.4.3 the rules of natural justice must be complied with; and
 - 8.4.4 the mediator must not determine the dispute.
- 8.5 If the dispute is not resolved by mediation, the parties may take legal action to resolve it.
